Bio

Susan Lyons, who also writes as Susan Fox, is the award-winning author of sexy contemporary romance that's passionate, heartwarming, and fun. She is published by Kensington Brava, Berkley Heat, Kensington Aphrodisia, and Harlequin Spice Briefs.

Her books have won the Booksellers Best Award, the Aspen Gold, the Golden Quill, the More Than Magic, the Lories, the Beacon, and the Laurel Wreath, and she was nominated for the RT Reviewers Choice Award. Her book Sex Drive was a Cosmopolitan Red-Hot Read.

Publishers Weekly chose Susan's His, Unexpectedly as one of the top 10 romances of Spring 2011, and in a starred review said: "Fox delivers a contemporary love story sure to make readers go weak in the knees... Well-crafted story lines and richly observed characters bolster a strong erotic element in this delightful, memorable romance."

Susan has presented writing workshops at the Romance Writers of American national conference, the RT Booklovers Convention, the Emerald City Writers Conference (Bellevue, WA), and Put Your Heart in a Book (Iselin, NJ), as well as for local RWA Chapters. She has spoken at library events and to reader groups. She has written articles for Romance Writers Report, RT BookReviews, LoveLetter (Germany), and RWA Chapter newsletters.

Susan is a Pacific Northwester with homes in Vancouver and Victoria, British Columbia. She has degrees in law and psychology, and has had a variety of careers, including perennial student, computer consultant, and legal editor. Fiction writer is by far her favorite, giving her an outlet to demonstrate her belief in the power of love, friendship, and a sense of humor.

Workshops

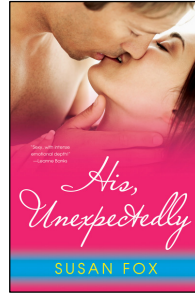

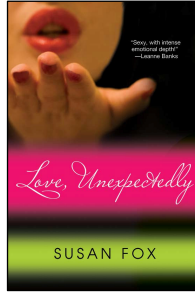

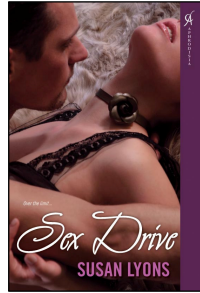

Susan is available for signings, library events, and chats with reader groups.

She is also happy to present workshops on:

- Freeing Up Your WildMind: Learn and practice Natalie Goldberg's tips for freeing up your creativity, finding your themes and voice, and writing more effectively and more passionately.
- Birthing a Novel: So you have a brilliant idea, and you're the best person to write that book. How do you get your characters, your story, and yourself ready to write? And then how do you keep going right through to "the end"?
- Look Who's Talking: Should your story be written in first or third person, or even omniscient? How many characters should have a point of view? When, if ever, should you head-hop? Must past tense always be used, or can present tense be effective? Learn how to use the most effective tense and point(s) of view for your novel, novella, or short story.
- Let's Talk Dialogue: Participants will analyze dialogue written by popular writers to determine the purposes of dialogue and techniques for writing dialogue that suits your characters and story, as well as your own writing voice.
- Critiquing the Critique Group: Everyone has an opinion on critique groups/partners, ranging from "they're essential" to "avoid like the plague." Susan will discuss the pros and cons for writers at various stages of their careers. Learn how to set up a successful critique group or relationship, and what to do if it's not working.
